Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-27 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-27 are allowable over the prior art of record because none of the prior art whether taken singularly or in combination teaches the claimed combination as recited, especially when these limitations are considered within the specific combination, particularly require in combination with other limitations such: wherein the trigger is controlled by an intelligent triggering controller external to the analyzer and receiving a signal at the analyzer from the intelligent triggering controller, wherein the signal automatically triggers the analyzer to capture and store a predetermined amount of data related to the specific system event before and after the trigger is executed (claim 1); wherein the trigger is controlled by an intelligent triggering controller external to the analyzer and receiving means for receiving a signal at the analyzer from the intelligent triggering controller, wherein the signal automatically triggers the analyzer to capture and store a predetermined amount of data related to the specific system event before and after the trigger is executed (claim 10); wherein the trigger is controlled by an intelligent triggering controller external to the analyzer and third instructions for receiving a signal at the analyzer from the intelligent triggering controller, wherein the signal automatically triggers the analyzer to capture and store a predetermined amount of data related to the specific system event before and after the trigger is executed (claim 19).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
